Babies and Toddlers returns back on Tuesday,
14 January, 9.30 - 11.30 am.

Ealing Churches Winter Night Shelter for 14 homeless persons is being held in the Polygon again this year from 6.30pm on Mondays, through until 8am on Tuesdays from 17 February to 30 March 2020.

Please let Zanda Russell know if you are able to help on the rotas again this year or would like to learn more about volunteering for the first time. Please come to an information and orientation evening about this year's shelter at the vicarage, 11 Church Place W5 4HN, on Tuesday 4 February at 8pm. All welcome

Could you please bear in mind that, in advance of the meeting we specifically need:

- Someone to coordinate the laundry (being laundry coordinator doesn't mean you do it every week!).
- Someone to work alongside Zanda to share the workload, which can be rather onerous at times.
- Someone to organise the sourcing of food (menus and potential sources will be provided).
- 4 or 5 people to volunteer to cook meals at home (menus, recipes and ingredients will be provided).
- Volunteers for evening shifts 6.30 - 10pm.
- Volunteers for night shift (male and female) 10pm - 6.45am (beds, coffee and other inducements available).
- Volunteers for morning shift 6.45am - 9.15am.

If people could volunteer for these roles before 26 January, that would be great.

Thank you to everyone who came and sang and supported our soup kitchen carol singing slot at Ealing Broadway Centre on 21 December. We collected £129 and then the Broadway centre kindly donated £700 for our efforts. Well done everyone.
